Why We Walk-Holly Senaga, Head of School, Chestnut Hill Academy

I walk so that my daughters understand the importance of giving back to those less fortunate and so they can see the impact coming together as a community makes in other's lives as well as their own. I walk for Crista Schindler, a previous 2nd Grade student of mine from Tukwila who is currently benefitting from the Bright Space we opened in Sand Point with her 4 year old daughter because she had nowhere else to go. I walk for the families in Hunts Point, NY because they are trying to break the cycle of poverty and illiteracy that is prevalent in their community. I walk because it makes a difference.
